Sail from incredible Italy, to Croatia, Turkey and the islands of Greece on this 12 day Venice roundtrip voyage on Holland America's ms Nieuw Amsterdam.

Venice will always be one of the highlights of your cruise along the eastern shore of Italy. You will make your way through the city either by boat or on foot. San Marco, the heart of Venetian life for more than a thousand years, is where you will find the major sights of St. Mark's Square, St. Mark's Basilica, the campanile, and the Doge's Palace with its Bridge of Sighs.

Split, Croatia will be your first port located in the center of the Adriatic eastern coast. Its mild climate makes it an oasis where you will have the opportunity to visit this UNESCO protected site of World Cultural Heritage.

Next sail to Piraeus for a day in Athens, a day on Mykonos, a day at Santorini, and a day at Katakolon to see Olympia. Modern Western civilization has been molded in many ways by ancient Greece. But additionally Greece is a country of great natural beauty, ancient ruins, and rugged mountain villages.

Along the way will be an overnight stop in exotic Istanbul, Turkey. Historically Istanbul was one of the most important stops on the famous Silk Road that linked the commerce of the East and West when the spice, silk and tea trades flourished.
